

Paul Spreadbury

School Improvement Manager

Paul has worked in Special Education since 2003 when he joined Cicely Haughton Residential School (SEMH) as a Primary School teacher and specialist in PE. Paul became Assistant Headteacher, with whole school responsibility for Data alongside residential duties.

Paul became the Head of School and then Headteacher of Cicely Haughton School in 2013 and had the privilege to lead a highly successful team to an Outstanding Ofsted judgement in 2013 and 2018, in both Educational and Residential formats.

Cicely Haughton were one of the founding members of Manor Hall Academy Trust and as Manor Hall Academy Trust has grown to 13 schools, Paul has taken on a school improvement role, initially 0.2 in September 2020 and 0.5 from September 2021 as School Improvement Manager.

Paul works alongside a team of School Improvement Partners to quality assure each school through our School Improvement Strategy.
