

Nicholas D. Thornton

MEng CEng MIRAes MAPM PgCert ACGI

Brief Outline of Career/Experience;

Committed, ambitious business leader who delivers sustainable business change. Nick has experience of a number of industries and has provided a breadth of skills in a range of functional areas including business development, project management, finance, commercial and engineering.

Other experience held;

- Leadership of the efficient delivery of engineering services
- Design and implementation of significant organisational change
- Enabling operational efficiencies
- Management and delivery of business strategic objectives
- Communication, delivery and stakeholder management of a large network across functional stakeholders
- Preparing board level communications, analysing and summarising business performance.
- Project management

Strengths linked to the transference of skills document;

Nick has managed business growth, driving up business efficiency and central services, independent scrutiny of financial planning and budgeting, project management.

Priorities linked to the Trustee Job Description;

Business growth, change management, efficiency change management, project management and strategic partnerships.